

*The Harp Society of Queensland
proudly presents*

A session of educational entertainment
with Latin American harpist

Sandra Real

Sandra Real is one of Colombia's most successful harpists. With Latin American group Cachicamo, Sandra is both a performer and educator, sharing South American music and traditions throughout Australia.

She plays the arpa llanera, a 4 octave harp from the plains of Colombia and Venezuela which has taken on a near-symbolic status in all of Latin America.

This concert and Q & A will be followed by HSQ's annual AGM, which all are more than welcome to attend.

When: 2pm, March 30th, 2008
followed by HSQ's AGM
Where: The Callan Centre,
St Joseph's College,
Gregory Terrace, Spring Hill
(entry via Victoria St)
Cost: $10. Children under 12 free.

Tickets at door, no bookings. Cash only, no credit card facilities. Bring extra cash for CDs.

Contact Blythe Tait for more information on 0427 631 723 or visit www.harpsociety.org.au

